Dyslexia Education for Teachers and Parents!

Did you know that Washington passed an additional dyslexia law in March 2018? It states that teachers and school personnel will need to know more about dyslexia in the near future.

Successful Learning Educational Services are conducting a FREE Dyslexia Simulation including a Dyslexia 101 Lecture on May 21st, 2018.

Teachers, three WA Teacher Clock hours are available after completion of this upcoming class through ESD 112. Parents, this is also a great event for you to learn about what it's like to have dyslexia, and help answer questions about whether or not your child may have it.

See the attached flyer for more information.

Screen Free Week

Thank you to everyone that participated in Screen Free Week.

Congrats to our winners Jade, Jack, Ari, Carson, Cason, and Scarlett who each received a Barnes and Noble Gift Card.
